Summary: This website is directed toward philanthropists (grant makers, individual donors and founder affinity groups) to educate and encourage them to divest from criminalization and invest in communities (housing, transportation, education, etc).

Take Action!

For those working in the philanthropic world, share this resource with colleagues and advocate for focusing funding on the needs of communities of color and divesting endowments from the industrial prison complex. Consider making a concrete commitment by filling out the section of the website "Make a Divest/Invest Commitment".
